

VISVA-BHARATI GRANTHANA VIBHAGA

Monthly Performance Report : August 2016

PROGRAMME :

A new sales counter of the Granthana Vibhaga was opened at Chataka in Santiniketan on 22 Sravana (7 August 2016).

Prof Swapan Datta, Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor, Visva-Bharati, inaugurated the counter. A programme was organised to mark the opening of the new counter. It began with an inaugural song by the students and faculty members of the Sangit Bhavana.

In his welcome address Dr Ramkumar Mukhopadhyay, Director, Visva-Bharati Granthana Vibhaga, said that the readers of Tagore's books are increasing at a rapid pace. In the last year the Granthana Vibhaga sale increased from Rupees Two crore one lac (approx) to Rupees Two crore fifty-three lac (approx). He expressed the hope that the new counter with a larger space would be able to serve the ashramites better than the old one at the entrance of the Rabindra Bhavana.

Sri Supriya Tagore, former Principal of Patha Bhavana, in his speech expressed his joy that the books of Tagore would be much more available now in Santiniketan. He also like the publications released on the day particularly Kalo Bari edited by Sanjoy Mallik. He requested Visva-Bharati to publish such pictorial volumes on Shyamali and other famous houses in Santiniketan built in Tagore's time.

In his speech from the chair, Prof Swapan Datta, Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor, Visva-Bharati, observed that the importance of Tagore both as a writer and educationist is felt by the world more and more. He stressed the importance of bringing Tagore's books at the door-steps of the readers. He also expected all the books of Tagore would be available all the time.

Director, Visva-Bharati Granthana Vibhaga, in his vote of thanks acknowledged the whole-hearted support the department had received from the Registrar, Accounts Officer and the Engineering department of the university in the opening of the sales counter.
