

Ranjan Mukhopadhyay
Associate Professor

Brief Note About the Faculty:

Born on August 15, 1955, Ranjan Mukhopadhyay obtained his PhD from Jadavpur University, Kolkata, in 1988 for his work on “The Justification of Deduction” under the supervision of Professor Pranab Kumar Sen. Some of his research works have been published in anthologies and research journals. He has acted as resource person in quite a number of national level workshops on Logic. He has presented talks in various national and international conferences on Logic. The focus of his present research is constructivist reasoning and related philosophical issues.