

Dr. Indrani Das

Professor of Italian

D.E.O.M.E.L.

I would like to incorporate the following things into my profile:

Teaching experience in Visva-Bharati – 18 years (1996 onwards)

I collaborated in a Research Project “Three Early Greek Travelers to India” of Prof. Miltiades Spyrou, of Athens, Greece, translating into English a 200 year old memoir of a Greek Traveler to India written in Italian.

I have collaborated with Oriental University of Naples, Italy and Rabindra Bharati, Kolkata translating from Italian into Bengali the Prison Notebook no. 25 of Antonio Gramsci, dedicated to the Subaltern Studies.

I have published a few articles in various journals on the translation of Tagore’s works into Italian.

I was nominated by the Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs for the prestigious award of the Knighthood of the ‘Order of Star of Italian Solidarity’ in 2006.

I am attached with SWORD, as office bearer, an NGO founded by Late Asit Kumar Bhattacharyya, a professor of Visva Bharati and presently run by Smt. Santa Bhattacharyya, a retd professor of Visva Bharati, Santiniketan which is working to eradicate Leprosy and T.B.in this region.

I am the chairperson of Krishnanagar Siksha Prasara Samity, a registered society which runs a CBSE affiliated co-educational residential Higher Secondary School for the last 20 years in the remote area of Chambal Valley in the Morena district of Madhya Pradesh.

I am a GB member of Vedanta Educational Society, a registered society which is going to establish a College in Kolkata, affiliated to the University of Calcutta.