NOTIFICATION

This is for information of all concerned that as per minutes of the last meeting of the extended Committee of Choice Based Credit System (CBCS) and as approved by the Upacharya, the following resolutions will be implemented to respective Bhavanas with immediate effect.

1. In order to pass a composite course consisting of theory and practical part under CBCS system, a candidate shall have to secure atleast 40% of full marks in theory as well as in practical part of the course separately. If a candidate fails to secure 40% in theory or practical part of the composite course he / she shall be declared as failed in theory or practical part only as the case may be. The candidate shall sit for the back paper (theory or practical) only in the next available permissible chance. This provision will be effected from the Academic Session 2017-18.
2. Environmental Studies may be taught with Skill Enhancement Compulsory Courses (SECC) in the 3rd semester as both Environmental Studies and Skill Enhancement are of two credits.
3. The CBCS syllabus as introduced by Siksha-Bhavana for this year will remain intact as all the departments of Siksha-Bhavana have already started with this syllabus.
4. The Generic Electives offered in the different Departments of Siksha-Bhavana may be changed after 2 Semesters.
5. The Generic Electives in case of Kala-Bhavana will start from the 3rd Semester.
6. Palli Charcha Kendra (Dept. of Rural Studies) will allow their students to take General Electives from other Bhavana only from the next Academic Session.
7. All Departments are requested to submit the list of Generic Electives courses offered along with the details syllabus structure and capping so that it may be included in the coming Admission Prospectus for the academic session 2018-19 to give a chance to the students to choose the alternative Generic Elective courses from the very beginning.
