NOTIFICATION

The undersigned is directed to convey that the competent authority, in consultation with staff and teachers' representatives and senior officials/faculty members of the University, has decided that all permanent employees (both faculty and non-teaching staff members) of the University shall donate their 1(one) day's pay to the Chief Minister's Relief Fund of Kerala as a token contribution from the University employees to express solidarity with the people affected by the devastating flood in Kerala. This deduction will be made from the salary of all permanent employees for the month of August, 2018 and this will be eligible for tax benefit under Section 80 (G).

All concerned are requested to extend necessary co-operation.
