

SPECIAL LECTURE

on

“Japan-India Relations - History and Perspective”

A Two-day Special Lecture on ‘Japan-India Relations - History and Perspective’ has been organized by the Department of Japanese (Nippon Bhavana) on October 27 & 28, 2017 as a part of the “2017 The Year of Japan-India Friendly Exchanges”. The talk will be delivered by Prof. Tomio Mizokami, Professor Emeritus, Osaka University of Foreign Studies & President, Kansai Japan-India Cultural Society in Bengali & Japanese respectively.

Professor Swapan Kumar Datta, Honourable Vice-Chancellor, Visva-Bharati has kindly consented to preside over the inaugural day of the programme.

All are cordially invited.

Venue: Conference Hall, Central Library

Date & Time: October 27, 2017; 5:30 – 7:30 p.m.

Dr. Gita A. Keeni
Head of the Department
Department of Japanese (Nippon Bhavana)
Visva-Bharati