

Visva-Bharati
Department of education
Vinaya Bhavana

National Workshop on Values-Orientation of Secondary School Teachers and Administrators

March 24 – 25, 2014

Objectives:

1. Conceptualizing values
2. Understanding professional ethics and identifying the compelling reasons for violence of professional ethics in classroom conduct and school governance
3. Knowing the values enshrined in Indian Constitution and identifying the problems relating to practice those values in school & public life
4. Understanding the human values of truth, righteous conduct, love, peace, and non-violence for a fulfilling life and problems for promoting those values
5. Identifying obstacles in the way of providing freedom, promoting creativity and ensuring joy of learning among students
6. Providing a platform for sharing values-governed school life through institutional case studies.
7. Orienting teachers and administrators in values for making school education effective and qualitative.

Sub-Themes:

- A conceptual clarification of values
- Professional ethics of secondary school teachers and administrators
- Compelling forces of violence of professional ethics in conduct of classroom and school governance
- Values enshrined in Indian Constitution
- Identification of problems relating to democratic values for making Democracy as way of life
- Universal human values (truth, righteous conduct, love, peace, non-violence) for leading a satisfying and fulfilling life
- Problems encountered for promoting universal human values
- Identifying obstacles in the way of providing freedom, developing understanding, promoting creativity and ensuring joy of learning among students
- Promoting health values through yoga and physical exercises
- Sharing of values-based experiences through presentation : Case study of any school whose tone and ethos acts as a unique source of and serves as model of values education
- Sharing of Life Experience of National / and State level Award winning Teachers

For further details please Contact :

Dr. K.C.Sahoo
Head
Department of Education ob + 919474409761
kcsantiniketan@gmail.com

Prof. B.D. Chinara
Director
National Workshop
Mob. : +919476102410
bd.chinara.ac@gmail.com