We are very happy to announce that Mr. Tanaka Susumu, the Director of Yokisō Museum, Nagoya, Japan will be presenting a documentary video on 17th March, 2014 during his visit to Santiniketan, based on ‘Meeting of Tagore and Itō Suketami’ and ‘The activity of Mr. P. Hariharan’. Mr. P. Hariharan (1905~1970) has a deep connection with Gurudev Rabindranath Tagore as well as Santiniketan and it is known that he went to Japan to study about pottery with the recommendation of Gurudev. The documentary on him tells about his activity in Bangalore on his return from Japan.

We cordially invite you to this interactive session.
