

Film & Photography Club, Silpa-Sadana

Relevance:

A Film & Photography (Domain) Club in a design institute can be incredibly valuable, as visual storytelling and aesthetics play a crucial role in design education. It can serve as the perfect bridge between the design thinking and the visual storytelling, making it an asset in a design institute like Silpa-Sadana.

Objectives:

This domain club has been formed as part of extended curricular engagements of the students. This club provides the students with opportunities to engage in film & photography related activities, to foster collaboration, skill development and innovation beyond their regular course curricula. For the design students, the Film & Photography Club has a strong bearing. It aims to foster creativity, technical skills, and artistic expression among the design students beyond the regular course curricula. Here are some key objectives:

- Promote Visual Storytelling – Encourage students to express ideas through photography and filmmaking.
- Enhance Technical Skills – Provide training in camera handling (for both still and videography), editing, cinematography, and lighting.
- Organize Workshops & Competitions – Conduct events to improve skills and showcase their talent.
- Encourage Collaboration – Facilitate teamwork in short film production and photography projects.
- Build a Portfolio – Help the students create professional-quality work/portfolio for their career opportunities.
- Explore Different Genres – Experiment with documentary, short films, street photography, and more.
- Host Exhibitions & Screenings – Provide a platform for the students to display their work.
- Engage with Industry Experts – Invite professionals for guest lectures and mentorship.
