Book Fair at Paschim Banga Bangla Akademi

The Visva-Bharati Granthana Vibhaga participated at the Book Fair organised by the Pashchim Banga Bangla Akademi from 11 to 14 January 2014, at Rabindra Sadan premises in Kolkata. On the same occasion, Bangla Academy organised a symposium on 14 January in which well-known writers like Sri Subrata Mukhopadhyay, Sri Ramanath Ray spoke on the inspiration they derived from their predecessors in Bengali literature. Sri Subrata Mukhopadhyay, an Akademi award-winning fictionist discussed how Bankimchandra and Ramprasad Sen still inspire him both in language and style. Dr. Ramkumar Mukhopadhyay, Director, Granthana Vibhaga in his address from the chair highlighted how Rabindranath Tagore drew his inspiration from the Vedas, Upanishads, Sanskrit literature and medieval Bhakti poets and how he inspired the modern Indian writers in different languages.
