SANTINIKETAN

NOTIFICATION

The undersigned is directed to convey for information of all concerned that the Karma Samiti (Executive Council) of the University in its emergent meeting held on 17-03-2022 unanimously approved the following measures for implementation with immediate effect;

- i) The University will remain open in order to avoid disruption of its both academic and administrative activities.
- ii) The Executive Council compassionately considered the representation of the employees and it was resolved that if any employee has any apprehension about his/her life or bodily injury, he/she may abstain himself/herself from attending offices until the situation becomes normal in the University. The concerned employee shall work from home. However, the University should be informed in advance by the concerned employee via email or any other written mode of communication.

This issues with the approval of the competent authority.
