Notice

Regarding availability of 'Research Assistance Cell' in all working days and
"Monthly talks for the scholars, by the scholars, with the scholars"

This is for the information of all concerned that, considering the needs and utilities of 'Research Support Services' for the research scholars, the 'Research Assistance Cell' of the Central Library will be kept open for the Faculty Members and Research Scholars from 5.00 pm to 6.00 pm on all normal working days.

The initiative will not only assist the research/academic works of the stakeholders, but it will also help to accelerate the interdisciplinary interaction among the Scholars, Faculty Members, and Library Professionals in compliance with the National Education Policy -2020 (NEP-2020)

Further, to promote quality research & publication activities and as desired by the research scholars, they may participate in the "Monthly talks for the scholars, by the scholars, with the scholars." The 'Library Friends', comprising of library clientele of VBLN will extend necessary cooperation with the library staff to arrange the monthly event.

University academics and administration are requested to extend the necessary support to make the initiatives a grand success.
