Nandan Mela, Kala-Bhavana and Santiniketan (color/2013/Sisir Sahana)	26 Min	A collective spirit The film 'Nandan Mela, Kala-Bhavana and Santiniketan' presents a narrative fact and artistic celebration of an art & craft fair in Santiniketan. The fair attracts thousands of visitors to witness the vibrant International cultural presence with multi-dimensional artworks created by the students and teachers of Kala-Bhavana. The fair is put in perspective of Visva-Bharati's cultural tapestry.
	2. Tepantar (Color/2017/ Rajdip Roy & others)	17.23 Min	'Village' the word itself comes with the aura of Nature but what if we put a single word before village? What if we put theatre before it? Isn't it arise with a bit more liveliness! It does. So does Tepantar a village in Burwan district that is known as the 'Theatre Village'. People with one common aspect 'Oneness' theatre for theatre's sake's this is what Tepantar is. The theatre group there decided to come out of social norms of society and formed an organic farm by working. That they are actually talented and passionate about their work reflects not in their acting and performing skills but also their intellectuality in managing and building the farm. The barrier of less education failed to bind their dreams because they are the inhabitants of 'Tepantar' (The horizon).
	3. Beyond Disabilities (color/2017/12.26 min/Mainak Ghosh & Santanu Ghosh)	12.26 Min	The documentary is a tribute to the abilities of the disabled. We are trying to encourage the abilities they have and wish them a great success in their lives. It is not about focusing on their disabilities but to acknowledge their abilities and could be an inspiration for able ones.

1Hour Break

2:00pm-4:25pm At Lipika Audi., Visva Bharati	The Thinking Body (Col./ 2106/ English/ Kadambari Shivaya)	81 Min.	Dance is the state of being that transcends one's physical self, developing into deep states of resonating minds in a spectrum of timelessness, of time-past, time-present and time-future. The Thinking Body interprets the mind of the character it portrays through spiritual layers.
	Vietnam Symphony (MIFF-2006/2nd Best Doc. Film /Silver Conch) (Col./ English/2005/Australia/ Tom Zubrycki)	52 Min.	In 1965, as the Vietnam was intensified, students and teachers from the Hanoi National Conservatory of Music were forced to flee the city for the relative safety of village in the countryside. With the help of villagers, they built an entire campus underground, creating a maze of hidden tunnels connecting an auditorium and classrooms. There, as the war raged around them, they lived, studied and played music five years. Vietnam Symphony tells their extraordinary story. Combining remarkable archival footage with contemporary interviews and a sublime soundtrack, it paints a portrait of life then and now, in a rapidly changing nation.
	Fisherwoman and Tuk Tuk (MIFF-2016/Best Animator) (Col/2015/Music/Suresh Eriyat)	15 Min.	This film weaves a story of a lonely fisherwoman who lives her dreams through her hard earned Tuk-tuk.
