Report on commemorating “150 years of Vande Mataram”

Visva-Bharati commemorated the 150th anniversary of *Vande Mataram with great reverence and enthusiasm on 7th November at the Conference Hall, Central Library. The event was organized to honour Bankim Chandra Chattopadhyay’s immortal creation, which continues to inspire generations with its message of patriotism and devotion to the motherland. The programme began with a warm welcome address by Dr. Nimai Chand Saha, Librarian, Visva-Bharati, who extended greetings to the distinguished guests, faculty members, students, and attendees. This was followed by a soulful rendition (Video Link) of Vande Mataram presented by the students of Sangit Bhavana, led by Dr. Manas Bhul, Assistant Professor, Sangit Bhavana, which set a patriotic tone for the occasion. Hon’ble Vice-Chancellor, Dr. Probir Kumar Ghosh, addressed (Video Link) the gathering and spoke on the historical and cultural significance of Vande Mataram in India’s freedom struggle and national consciousness. He emphasized the importance of preserving such national treasures as symbols of unity, inspiration, and pride. The event concluded with a Vote of Thanks delivered by Dr. Atig Ghosh, Assistant. Professor, Dept. of History and PRO (Offg.), Visva-Bharati who expressed gratitude to all participants, guests, and organizing members for making the celebration meaningful and memorable. On this occasion, the Central Library also facilitated the live telecast of the Prime Minister’s address, allowing the audience to join the nation in commemorating this landmark celebration. The event exemplified Visva-Bharati’s commitment to fostering the ideals of patriotism, culture, and knowledge that continue to shape the nation’s identity.
