

- The department of anthropology hosts a range of state-of-the-art research facilities that are used and run by academic members, postgraduate students and research scholars.
- Department of anthropology have a research lab for biological anthropology and other facilities that support our research and teaching.
 - The department houses a wide collection of material culture objects and prehistoric tools, which are actively used in teaching of social-cultural anthropology and Prehistory.
- Department provides uninterrupted internet WiFi facilities to students, scholars, staffs and faculties.
- Department has a seminar hall for the students and scholars.
 - Department has a smart class room.